Individuals previously enrolled in TCOM may audit classes until the end of the academic year in which they withdrew, if given permission by the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs. They may not sit for any exams or quizzes in any courses. They may not actively participate in laboratories but may observe with instructor approval. Laboratories include OMM 1–4, Clinical Medicine 1-4, and all anatomy laboratories associated with the Systems Courses in Years 1 and 2. They may not participate in any patient care activities.

Any person who has never been enrolled in TCOM is prohibited from auditing any course taught in TCOM, unless given special permission by the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs or the Dean of TCOM. Even when given approval by the Associate Dean or Dean, he or she may not sit for any exams or quizzes in any courses. He or she may not actively participate in laboratories but may observe with instructor approval. Laboratories include OMM 1–4, Clinical Medicine 1-4, and all anatomy laboratories associated with the Systems Courses in Years 1 and 2. He or she may not participate in any patient care activities.
